Unique Old Program

Manager Dolly of the Empire is in receipt of the following letter: Dear Sir: In looking over some old keepsakes I found this program. Will you accept it? You will see how old it is and was performed in Cincinnati, Ohio, at that time. Yours truly, MRS. ELIZABETH M. MAYNES.

729 Seventeenth street, City. The enclosed program is of white silk, printed in blue ink, and is from the grand opera house of Cincinnati, the occasion being the 26th performance of John T. Raymond in A.

C. Gunter's four-act comedy, "Fresh," Saturday evening, Dec. 10, 1881. The cast includes Atkins Lawrence, Harry Pierson, George F. Devere, William Cullington, D. H. Chase, Charles Aiken, Miss Agnes Proctor and Miss Lizzie Creese. Further down on the program is printed. Brooks & Dickson announce the following attractions under their direction: The Vokes family in "The World,"

Mr. and Mrs. Nat C. Goodwin in "Two Nights in Rome" and the latest comedy scream, "Mother-in-Law." Mr. Dolly is having the program framed and will place it in his office.

The peculiar properties of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy have been thoroughly tested during epidemics of influenza, and when it was taken in time we have not heard of a single case of pneumonia. Sold by all druggists.
